

Millennium Green

The White House Millennium Council designates as a Millennium Green Project: Center for Economic Options. This is In recognition of efforts to bring the community together around the national theme, "Honor the Past—Imagine the Future," by helping to promote and create a healthier environment and more livable community.